GENERAL INFORMATION

- Students under 16 years of age are not allowed into evening classes.
- There are minimum numbers required before classes can be formed and classes may be canceled if this minimum number is not reached by the end of enrolment.
- On some courses it may be necessary to limit the number of places. The formation of classes also depends on the availability of tutors.
- Refunds will only be issued if a class is cancelled and can only be made by DDLETB after the commencement of classes. Under no circumstances can refunds be made by the college.
- Transfer from one course to another is at the discretion of the Adult Education Director.
- Payment of fees - Preferred payment method is by Laser/Credit card.
- Cheques or cash will be accepted. Please note that fees only cover the cost of tuition. In some practical classes students may be asked to purchase their own materials or an extra charge may be levied.
- Whilst every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of this brochure, no liability can be accepted for any errors or omissions.
- Special senior citizens rate available.
- No cash will be accepted at any other time than enrolment nights in the college.
- Management reserve the right to refuse admission.

The Committee accepts no obligation to refund any fee (or part fee) paid by a student to the Committee or to a student who withdraws from the course. A full refund will be given for courses which do not proceed. Refunds will be paid using either of the following two methods of payments:

- Cheque for those who paid by cash or cheque (issued from DDLETB Head Office OR
- Refund to original Dr/Cr Card which was used as original method of payment.

Refunds will only be made payable to the person enrolled on the course. No cash/refund can be given directly by the centre.
